Vehicle Owners Reminded of Applicable Fee when Renewing by Mail

PIERRE, S.D. – South Dakota Division of Motor Vehicles officials are reminding vehicle owners of an extra fee that is due when annual vehicle registrations are renewed by mail.

“Registration renewal cards recently mailed out for September vehicle renewals inadvertently omitted mention of the applicable postage/handling fee that is to be included when renewing by mail,” said Division of Motor Vehicles Director Deb Hillmer.

While there is a reference to the postage fee on the informational front of the renewal cards, specific mention of the fee was omitted from the back of the cards in the recent mailing.

Vehicle owners are reminded that when vehicle registrations are renewed by mail, a postage/handling fee of $1.00 for each license that is renewed should be included in the total amount remitted to county treasurers.

In addition to vehicle registration renewals by mail, vehicle owners also have the option of renewing in person at their local county treasurer’s office or online through the Internet renewal system at www.SDcars.org
